

Copperplate Calligraphy From A To Z: A Step-by-Step Workbook for Mastering Elegant, Pointed-Pen Lettering By Sarah Richardson Beat part is a lot of examples and projects are given which will surely take your calligraphy skills one level up. 128 pages Sarah Richardson has been a calligrapher for 5 years: She first learned modern calligraphy from Lauren Essl then learned copperplate calligraphy in a workshop taught by Nina Tran and followed up by studying The Zanerian Manual and Dr, Sarah graduated from Hendrix College with a degree in Art History and recently graduated with her Certificate in Design Communication Arts from UCLA. Her work has been featured by Gwyneth Paltrow's website Goop: She is a member of The International Association of Master Penmen Engrossers and Teachers of Handwriting (IAMPETH), Sarah is originally from Little Rock Arkansas but now lives in Austin TX. Copperplate Calligraphy From A To Z: A Step-by-Step Workbook for Mastering Elegant Pointed-Pen Lettering.

[1]

Amazing book with a lot of useful content. Great for beginners. Highly recommend to someone beginning copperplate study. Joe Vitolo's ebook Script in the Copperplate Style